CORINNE TURCOTTE ACCEPTED INTO THE PARTNERSHIP OF JAMES MOORE

Gainesville, FL (November 12, 2020) – James Moore & Company, P.L. (James Moore) is pleased to congratulate Corinne Turcotte, CPA, for her admission into the partnership effective Nov. 1.

A member of the firm for nearly ten years, Corinne focuses on nonprofit organizations, addressing their taxation issues and providing audit, assurance, and accounting and controllership services. Based in our Gainesville office, she is one of the leaders of the firm's Nonprofit Services Team and is a certified member of the Not-For-Profit section of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

Corinne has been instrumental in the advancement of the nonprofit segment at James Moore. Through her leadership with the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) process and her guidance on ideas and strategies, she has helped our nonprofit clients survive the COVID-19 impact. She has also become the firm's go-to expert on uniform guidance single audits and led the charge into new geographical markets.

Corinne's dedication to nonprofit causes goes well beyond the work she does with the firm. She has been involved with Catholic Charities for years; she currently serves as Treasurer for the organization's Gainesville region and is on the diocesan board. She's also involved with United Way Emerging Leaders (and has been a Reading Pal with the organization) and is currently a mentor with Take Stock in Children.

Corinne earned a Master of Accountancy and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Florida.

James Moore, founded in 1964, is a regional firm with offices in Daytona Beach, DeLand, Gainesville and Tallahassee. The firm specializes in providing auditing, tax, accounting, wealth management and consulting services.
